Call to Confession

Cantor:

Congregation:

Prayer of Confession

Holy God,
how often we trust in the promises of earthly rulers
instead of the power of your love;
help us to turn our hearts toward you.
Restore us in your love, and set us free
to forgive as we have been forgiven,
by the grace and mercy of Christ. Amen.

Silence is kept.

Assurance of Pardon

Response

The people stand to sing.

GLORIA PATRI

Passing the Peace of Christ

The peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

Please turn to your neighbor and share the peace of Christ. It is appropriate to say, “The peace of Christ be with you”, and to respond, “And also with you.” The gesture is simple, but the meaning is profound. When we extend our hand to another, we identify with Jesus, who extended his life to the point of death to make peace with humanity (Col. 1:20-21). What’s more, in the midst of divisions we symbolize our unity through handshakes and hugs (Eph. 2:14-21). Likewise, when we regularly pass the peace we practice God’s call to make every effort to maintain the bond of peace (Eph. 4:3).

Time with Children

At this time, parents may decide to have their children 3 years and older leave with their teachers. When the children leave, please make sure they take their belongings with them.

Anthem

The Majesty and Glory of Your Name

Tom Fettke (b. 1941)

When I gaze into the night sky, and see the work of your fingers;
The moon and stars suspended in space. But what is man that you are mindful of him?
You have given man a crown of glory and honor and have made him a little lower than the angels.
You have put him in charge of all creation:
The beasts of the field, the birds of the air, the fish of the sea.
But what is man that you are mindful of him?

O Lord, our God, the majesty and glory of your name transcends the earth and fills the heavens.
Little children praise you perfectly, and so would we. Alleluia, the majesty and glory of your name!

Invitation to the Offering

Offertory

*The Deacons receive the gifts, a portion of the blessings God has given us, which we return unto God.
Worshippers are invited to sign the Friendship Pad located in the aisle seat of each pew and then please pass it to others in the pew.*

King of Glory, King of Peace

Carson Cooman (b. 1982)

King of glory, King of peace, I will love thee;
And that love may never cease, I will move thee.
Thou hast granted my request, thou hast heard me;
Thou didn't note my working breast, thou hast spared me.

Wherefore with my utmost art, I will sing thee.
And the cream of all my heart I will bring thee.
Though my sins against me cried, thou didst clear me;
And alone, when they replied, thou didst hear me.

Seven whole days, not one in seven, I will praise thee;
In my heart, thou not in heaven I can raise thee.
Small it is, in this poor sort to enroll thee:
Even eternity's too short to extol thee.

Presentation of the Gifts

The people stand as the Deacons come forward and remain standing for the Prayer of Dedication.

in Christ's name we pray. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Concluding with the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil;
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

NOTES ON TODAY'S MUSIC

Born in London, Samuel Sebastian Wesley† was the eldest child in the composer Samuel Wesley's second family, which he formed with Sarah Suter having separated from his wife Charlotte. Samuel Sebastian was the grandson of Charles Wesley. His middle name derived from his father's lifelong admiration for the music of Bach. After singing in the choir of the Chapel Royal as a boy, Samuel Sebastian embarked on a career as a musician, and was appointed organist at Hereford Cathedral in 1832. He moved to Exeter Cathedral three years later, and subsequently held appointments at Leeds Parish Church (from 1842), Winchester Cathedral (from 1849) and Gloucester Cathedral (1865-1876).

Famous in his lifetime as one of his country's leading organists and choirmasters, he composed almost exclusively for the Church of England, which continues to cherish his memory. His better-known anthems include Thou Wilt Keep Him in Perfect Peace and Wash Me Thoroughly. He also wrote several rather late examples of verse anthems, which contrast unison and contrapuntal sections with smaller, more intimate passages for solo voice or voices. Several of his compositions for solo organ have enduring value and continue to be played in recitals. One notable feature of his career is his aversion to equal temperament, an aversion he kept for decades after this tuning method had been accepted on the Continent and even in most of England.

Sunday Morning Worship: Readers & Liturgists

You will learn more about the work and service of the Liturgist's position, we cheerfully invite you to join us for a brief explanatory orientation meeting. The next meeting is today, November 22nd, directly following the 11:00AM Worship service; a light lunch will be served. Please indicate which date you will be attending by signing up on the sheet on the Gallery room table. A Psalm of Praise

Malcolm Williamson (1931-2003)

O praise the Lord of heaven: praise him in the height.
Praise him, all ye angels of his: praise him all his host.
Praise him sun and moon: praise him, all ye stars and light.
Praise him all ye heavens; and ye waters that are above the heavens.
Let them praise the name of the Lord.

Let them praise the name of the Lord; for he spake the word and they were made;
He commanded, and they were created. He hath made them fast forever and ever.
He hath given them a law which shall not be broken.

Praise the Lord upon earth; ye dragons and all deeps;
Fire and hail, snow and vapours, wind and storm, fulfilling his word;
Mountains and all hills: fruitful trees and all cedars;
Beasts and all cattle: worms and fathered fowls;
Kings of the earth and all people: princes and all judges of the world;
Young men and maidens, old men and children, praise the name of the Lord;
For his name only is excellent, and his praise above heaven and earth.

He shall exalt the horn of his people, all his saints shall praise him:
Even the children of Israel, even the people that serve him.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
