The Good Shepherd
Artist: Lalo Garcia

‘I am the good shepherd.
The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep...’

-John 10:11

Welcome to this place of Christian worship

Do not wait for someone else to begin worship. Pray silently for yourself, for those about you, for the poor and the oppressed, for those unable to be present, and for those who will shortly lead our common worship. Latecomers may enter the Sanctuary during the singing of the first hymn or during the Response to the Assurance. Ushers are available for assistance. Please turn off all cell phones.

Reverie

Chiming of the Trinity

The sounding of the chimes, invoking Creator, Son, and Holy Spirit, is an invitation to prepare for worship through a time of silent reflection. Please be respectful of those who are praying.

Introit

Christ is Risen! Shout Hosanna!

arr. Jeremy J. Bankson

Alleluia! Christ is risen! Shout Hosanna! Celebrate this day of days!
Christ is risen! Hush in wonder; all creation is amazed.
In the desert all surrounding, see, a spreading tree has grown.
Healing leaves of grace abounding bring a taste of love unknown.

Christ is risen! Raise your spirits from the caverns of despair.
Walk with gladness in the morning. See what love can do and dare.
Drink the wine of resurrection, not a servant, but a friend.
Jesus is our strong companion. Joy and peace shall never end.

Christ is risen! Earth and heaven nevermore shall be the same.
Break the bread of new creation where the world is still in pain.
Tell its grim, demonic chorus: "Christ is risen! Get you gone!"
God the First and Last is with us. Sing Hosanna, everyone!

Call to Worship

The people stand and remain standing for the Hymn in Procession.

Hymn in Procession, No. 111

Call to Confession

Cantor:

Be with us now, O Lord, qui - et us, cen-ter us, hear us.

Congregation:

O Lord, hear our prayer, O Lord, hear our prayer. When we call, an - swer us.

O Lord, hear our prayer, O Lord, hear our prayer. Come and lis-ten to us.

Prayer of Confession

Lord, have mercy on us.
We talk about love, but our actions betray us.
We talk about love, but we neglect the poor.
We talk about love, but we fail to love one another.
Lord, have mercy on us.
Forgive us, and abide in us by the power of your Spirit
so that our lives may show our love for Jesus Christ, in whose body we live and in whose name we pray. Amen.

GLORIA PATRI

Glo - ry be to the Fa-ther, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Ghost; As it was in the be - gin-ning, is now, and ev - er shall be, world with-out end. A - men, A - men.

Passing the Peace of Christ

The peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

Please turn to your neighbor and share the peace of Christ. It is appropriate to say, "The peace of Christ be with you", and to respond, "And also with you." The gesture is simple, but the meaning is profound. When we extend our hand to another, we identify with Jesus, who extended his life to the point of death to make peace with humanity (Col. 1:20-21).

What's more, in the midst of divisions we symbolize our unity through handshakes and hugs (Eph. 2:14-21).

Likewise, when we regularly pass the peace we practice God's call to make every effort to maintain the bond of peace (Eph. 4:3).

Time with Children

TALLIS CANON

Go with them, Lord, and guide their way through this and ev - ery com - ing day, that in Your Spir - it strong and true their lives may be a gift to You.

*At this time, parents may decide to have their children 3 years and older leave with their teachers.
When the children leave, please make sure they take their belongings with them.*

Anthem

You Are Mine

David Haas

I will come to you in the silence, I will lift you from all your fear.
You will hear my voice, I claim you as my choice, be still and know I am here.

I am hope for all who are hopeless, I am eyes for all who long to see.
In the shadows of the night, I will be your light, come and rest in me.

I am strength for all the despairing, healing for the ones who dwell in shame.
All the blind will see, the lame will all run free, and all will know my name.

I am the Word that leads all to freedom, I am the peace the world cannot give.
I will call your name, embracing all your pain, stand up, now walk, and live!

Do not be afraid, I am with you. I have called you each by name.
Come and follow me, I will bring you home; I love you and you are mine.

Come to us, Messiah, O Lord, we've been a-waitin' so long.
There will be joy, great joy, O come, we've been a-waitin' so long.
There will be love when the Messiah comes.

Prayers of the People

Concluding with the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses,

And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil;
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Benediction and Choral Response

Leaning on the Everlasting Arms

arr. Mark Hayes

What a fellowship, what a joy divine, leaning on the everlasting arms;
What a blessedness, what a peace is mine, leaning on the everlasting arms.
Leaning, safe and secure from all alarms;
Leaning, leaning on the everlasting arms.

Oh, how sweet to walk in the pilgrim way, leaning on the everlasting arms.
Oh, how bright the path grows from day to day, leaning on the everlasting arms.

I'm leaning on my Jesus' arms, He'll keep me safe from ev'ry harm,
Safe and secure from all alarms;
He is my Rock, my Hope, my Stay, He is my comfort day to day,
I'm leaning on the everlasting arms.

What have I to dread, what have I to fear, leaning on the everlasting arms of God?
I have such blessed peace with Jesus, my Lord so near, leaning on the everlasting arms.

Notes on Today's Music

A founder of the American Guild of Organists and the School of Sacred Music at Union Theological Seminary, Clarence Dickinson[†] was known as the Dean of American Church Musicians. Dr. Dickinson – organist and choirmaster, composer, virtuoso, performer, author, lecturer, and teacher – worked in all his capacities to broaden appreciation of organ music and reach new audiences. He worked tirelessly to improve the quality of church music, even as he celebrated his 90th birthday conducting a large choral festival at The Riverside Church in Manhattan. Dickinson's reputation suffered undeserved neglect among American church musicians since the 1950s. By the time he retired as organist-choirmaster of The Brick Church in New York City, changes in taste and style had radically altered what was considered acceptable in church music and organ design. Following Dr. Dickinson's retirement in 1960, the magnificent Skinner organ he played for over forty years was discarded, and his music gradually fell out of favor. Today his music lies largely forgotten. A rendering of Dr. Dickinson is featured in our 1967 "Praise" window on the North side of the Narthex (his image is on the second floor).

^{††}Richard Purvis was an American organist, composer, conductor and teacher. He was born in San Francisco and began playing the organ publicly at the age of 14 in churches and in the Civic Auditorium in San Francisco. Purvis' teacher, Wallace Arthur Sabin, played the dedicatory concert in 1915. In addition to recitals and church services, Purvis played nightly recitals broadcast from the 7-rank style Wurlitzer (made in North Tonawanda) organ at the Chapel of the Chimes over local radio station KRE. Leaving his native San Francisco to further his studies, he entered the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia in January, 1936 under the Cyrus Curtis Organ Scholarship, which also paid for European summer study in 1936 and 1937.

In February 1947 he was appointed to Grace Cathedral, San Francisco where he presided over the Aeolian-Skinner organ (who build both organs at Westminster), one of the first American Classic instruments built by the firm. Affectionately known as 'Gussie', this organ was to profoundly influence his style of playing and composition. Purvis would develop a distinctive 'Purvis sound' which was a result of the voicing of the organ and the regulation of tremulants, which he insisted be set full on in a style similar to theatre organs.

From 1947 through 1971, Purvis held the position of Organist and Master of Choristers at Grace Cathedral, where he helped to form a cathedral school for boys, ensuring the continuation of the all male choir tradition. He was also organist at the California Palace of the Legion of Honor. Upon his retirement from Grace Cathedral, he continued to compose, teach and give recitals into his 70's.

Purvis's long and distinguished career was marked by elegant service playing, conducting and composition. He was admired as one of the finest organ improvisateurs in the U.S. In an era when so-called "romantic" music was out of favor with most composers, and atonal and serial music were considered the hallmark of serious composition, he was not afraid to write tuneful, accessible, richly colored compositions.

The Lord's My Shepherd

BROTHER JAMES' AIR, arr. Malcom Archer

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want. He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; he leadeth me the quiet waters by.

My soul he doth restore again, and me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteous, even for his own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through death's dark vale yet will I fear no ill;
For though art with me and thy rod and staff me comfort still.

My table thou hast furnished in presence of my foes;
My head thou dost with oil anoint and my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life shall surely follow me;
And in God's house forevermore my dwelling place shall be.
