The Prayer of St. Francis

*Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace.
That where there is hatred, we may bring love.
That where there is wrong, we may bring the spirit of forgiveness.
That where there is discord, we may bring harmony.
That where there is error, we may bring truth.
That where there is doubt, we may bring faith.
That where there is despair, we may bring hope.
That where there are shadows, we may bring light.
That where there is sadness, we may bring joy.*

*Lord, may we seek to comfort rather than be comforted.
To understand, rather than be understood.
To love, rather than be loved.
For it is by giving ourselves away, that we find ourselves.
It is in forgiving that we find forgiveness,
And it is by dying that we discover eternal life. Amen.*

Welcome to this place of Christian worship.

Do not wait for someone else to begin worship. Pray silently for yourself, for those about you, for the poor and the oppressed, for those unable to be present, and for those who will shortly lead our common worship. Please silence all cell phones. Childcare is available in the Westminster Early Childhood Programs building for children 5 years old and younger.

Introit

The Preces

David Hogan (1949-1996)

O Lord, open thou our lips. And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.
O God, make speed to save us. O Lord, make haste to help us.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.
Praise ye the Lord. The Lord's name be praised.

Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee

HYMN TO JOY

Invitation to Confession

Rev. Beth Hennessy

Cantor:

Congregation:

Prayer Of Confession

God of Mercy,
we confess that we have not been obedient sons and daughters.
We have grown idle in the work of discipleship and weary in doing what is right.
We have been selfish in our actions and insistent in claiming our rights.
We have not honored the tradition of the apostles,
or imitated the example of your saints.

Forgive us, we pray.
Show us the way of repentance,
free us from our idle ways,
and strengthen us to be faithful disciples
of Jesus Christ,
through whom we pray.
Amen.

Passing the Peace of Christ

The peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

Please turn to your neighbor and share the peace of Christ. It is appropriate to say, "The peace of Christ be with you," and to respond, "And also with you." The gesture is simple, but the meaning is profound. When we extend our hand to another, we identify with Jesus, who extended his life to the point of death to make peace with humanity (Col. 1:20-21).

What's more, in the midst of divisions we symbolize our unity through handshakes and hugs (Eph. 2:14-21).

Likewise, when we regularly pass the peace we practice God's call to make every effort to maintain the bond of peace (Eph. 4:3).

Receiving and Welcoming of New Members

Jonathan & Jennifer Andreas, Pedro Berges, Maryalice Devine, Leslie Deich, Ndey Diallo, Vickie Garner
Jason Hewitt & Kayla McKinley, Matthew & Katie McPheeters, Jane Morris, Roberta Nickelsen
Roger Seifert

As members of the one holy catholic and apostolic church, you do not come to us as strangers, but as sisters and brothers in the Lord. Please renew your vows of baptism by answering the call to discipleship.

Who is your Lord and Savior?

Jesus Christ is my Lord and Savior.

Do you trust him?

I do.

Do you intend to be his disciple, to obey his word, and to show his love?

I do.

Will you be a faithful member of this congregation, giving of yourself in every way, and will you seek the fellowship of the church wherever you go?

I will.

Members of the congregation, let us greet our new friends.

We, the officers and members of this congregation, bid you welcome to our work and worship, and pledge to you our Christian fellowship. We pray that all of us united by our faith may grow into the likeness of Jesus our Lord.

Introduction to the Lesson

Sam Magavern

Scripture Lesson

Isaiah 65:17-25

¹⁷ For I am about to create new heavens and a new earth; the former things shall not be remembered or come to mind. ¹⁸ But be glad and rejoice for ever in what I am creating; for I am about to create Jerusalem as a joy, and people as a delight. ¹⁹ I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and delight in my people; no more shall the sound of weeping be heard in it, or the cry of distress. ²⁰ No more shall there be in it an infant that lives but a few days, or an old person who does not live out a lifetime; for one who dies at a hundred years will be considered a youth, and one who falls short of a hundred will be considered accursed. ²¹ They shall build houses and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit. ²² They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat; for like the days of a tree shall the days of my people be, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not labour in vain, or bear children for calamity; for they shall be offspring blessed by the Lord - and their descendants as well. ²⁴ Before they call I will answer, while they are yet speaking I will hear. ²⁵ The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, the lion shall eat straw like the ox; but the serpent—its food shall be dust! They shall not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain, says the Lord.

A Call to Action: Give

Invitation to the Offering

Bob Bojduk

Offertory

The Deacons receive the gifts, a portion of the blessings God has given us, which we return unto God.

It Is a Good Thing to Give Thanks

David Hurd (b. 1950)

It is a good thing to give thanks to the Lord;
And to sing praises to your Name, O Most High;
To tell of your loving kindness early in the morning,
And of your faithfulness in the night season;
On the psaltery and on the lyre, and to the melody of the harp.
For you have made me glad by your acts, O Lord;
And I shout for joy because of the works of your hands. (Psalm 92:1-4)

Presentation of the Gifts

The people stand as the Deacons come forward and remain standing for the Prayer of Dedication.

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God, from whom all bless-ings flow; praise God, all crea-tures here be - low:
Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! Praise God, the source of all our gifts!
Praise Je - sus Christ, whose pow'r up - lifts! Praise the Spir - it, Ho - ly Spir - it!
Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!

Prayer of Dedication

Loving God,
before we give to you, you have given to us.
All we offer we have received from you.
We thank you for your goodness,
and we praise you for your bountiful works,
though Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Prayers of the People Concluding with the Lord's Prayer

Julie Zenger, Giving 2017 Co-Chair

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil;
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

Lord, Make Me an Instrument

Jonathan Willcocks (b. 1953)

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace;
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is discord, may there be union;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, let there be hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
Where there is sadness, may there be joy.
May we all be in peace, and only peace;
May that peace come unto each of us.

PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS

Litany of Dedication

Let us pray together the Prayer of St. Francis as we dedicate ourselves and these gifts for God's ministry in 2017.

Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace.

That where there is hatred,

we may bring love.

That where there is wrong,

we may bring the spirit of forgiveness.

That where there is discord,

we may bring harmony.

That where there is error,

we may bring truth.

That where there is doubt,

we may bring faith.

That where there is despair,

we may bring hope.

That where there are shadows,

we may bring light.

That where there is sadness,

we may bring joy.

Lord, may we seek to comfort

rather than be comforted.

To understand,

rather than be understood.

To love,

rather than be loved.

For it is by giving ourselves away,

that we find ourselves.

It is in forgiving

that we find forgiveness,

And it is by dying

that we discover eternal life.

Enable us to live this prayer
as we strengthen our congregation and help heal our nation. Amen.

Notes on Today's Music

†Eugene Gigout was a French organist and composer. He studied with Camille Saint-Saens and enjoyed a long career (62 years) as organist of Saint-Augustin Church in Paris. Although a gifted teacher and composer, his skill as an improviser is what brought him the most accolades.

††Johnathan Willcocks is the son of renowned English composer and conductor Sir David Willcocks. After completing early training as a chorister at King's College, Cambridge, he graduated from Cambridge University and Trinity College. Primarily a composer of music for voices, he has also enjoyed many conducting opportunities, including those with the Portsmouth Choral Union and Guildford Choral Society.

Welcome! We are glad you have chosen to worship with us today.

The new "Meet & Mingle" event after the 10:30AM church service is a great success! Thanks to everyone for participating! In order to keep it running successfully we are looking for YOU to help in one of the following ways:

1. Be a shopper – purchase the food from a list provided on a regular basis and bring to church for storage. Bring receipts for reimbursement.
2. Be a host for the week – each week we are looking for a different family to serve as the host. The hosts would come early to church to make the punch and put the food on serving plates before the 10:30 service; also monitor the need to refill punch or food platters; and clean up dirty dishes, put unused food away, and take home tablecloths to be laundered and returned.
3. Be a sponsor – make a donation to WPC to cover the weekly costs.

As you reflect on how you can best give of your time, talent and treasure, please contact Debby LaMendola (716-983-4993) and let her know how YOU can help!
