

WESTMINSTER PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Buffalo, New York

July 17, 2016
Ninth Sunday after Pentecost
10:00 a.m. in the Holmes Chapel

'A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead.
Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.
So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.
But a Samaritan while travelling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity.
He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them.
Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him...

- Luke 10:30-34

Welcome to this place of Christian worship.

Do not wait for someone else to begin worship. Pray silently for yourself, for those about you, for the poor and the oppressed, for those unable to be present, and for those who will shortly lead our common worship. Please silence all cell phones.

Childcare is available in the Westminster Early Childhood Programs building for children 5 years old and younger.

Welcome and Announcements

Dr. Yorty

Order of Worship

---

Chiming of the Trinity

The sounding of the chimes, invoking Creator, Son, and Holy Spirit, is an invitation to prepare for worship through a time of silent reflection. Please be respectful of those who are praying.

Opening Voluntary

Prelude

Frank Bridge* (1879-1941)

Call to Worship

The people stand and remain standing for the hymn that follows.

Hymn

God is Our Refuge and Our Strength

WINCHESTER OLD

The hymn can be found on page 10 of this bulletin.

Call to Confession

Cantor:

Congregation:

Prayer Of Confession

Merciful God,

we confess that we have been distracted with many things and have not loved you with our whole heart and strength.

We have not paid attention to your Word.

We have allowed the poor to be neglected and the weak to be oppressed.

We have been impatient in worship and insincere in our dealings with others.

We have ignored signs of injustice and disregarded warnings of judgment.

Forgive us, we pray, and teach us repentance.

Free us from our habits of pride, and make us steadfast in faith, that we may live as those who are reconciled with you in Jesus Christ our Lord, with whom we pray. Amen.

Time for silent prayer.

Words of Assurance

Response to the Assurance

GLORIA PATRI

The people stand to sing.

Glo - ry be to the Fa - ther, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Ghost; As it was in the be - gin - ning, is now, and ev - er shall be, world with - out end. A - men, A - men.

Passing the Peace of Christ

The peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

Please turn to your neighbor and share the peace of Christ. It is appropriate to say, “The peace of Christ be with you,” and to respond, “And also with you.” The gesture is simple, but the meaning is profound. When we extend our hand to another, we identify with Jesus, who extended his life to the point of death to make peace with humanity (Col. 1:20-21).

What’s more, in the midst of divisions we symbolize our unity through handshakes and hugs (Eph. 2:14-21).

Likewise, when we regularly pass the peace we practice God’s call to make every effort to maintain the bond of peace (Eph. 4:3).

Prayer for Illumination

Scripture Lesson

Luke 10:25-37

<sup>25</sup>Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. ‘Teacher,’ he said, ‘what must I do to inherit eternal life?’ <sup>26</sup>He said to him, ‘What is written in the law? What do you read there?’ <sup>27</sup>He answered, ‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbour as yourself.’ <sup>28</sup>And he said to him, ‘You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live.’ <sup>29</sup>But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, ‘And who is my neighbour?’ <sup>30</sup>Jesus replied, ‘A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. <sup>31</sup>Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. <sup>32</sup>So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. <sup>33</sup>But a Samaritan while travelling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. <sup>34</sup>He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. <sup>35</sup>The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, “Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.” <sup>36</sup>Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?’ <sup>37</sup>He said, ‘The one who showed him mercy.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Go and do likewise.’

Notes on Today's Music

*Frank Bridge studied violin and composition with Charles Villiers Stanford at the Royal College of Music, for four years (1899-1903). Bridge quickly developed a reputation as a gifted violinist and conductor, performing with the Joachim Quartet, the English String Quartet, the Savoy Theatre, and Covent Garden. While performing, Bridge also wrote chamber music and songs. His few orchestral works, including The Sea (1911), were influenced by the French Impressionists. World War I was a traumatic time for Bridge, an ardent pacifist, and led to more dissonance and darkness creeping into his works. In his last two decades, Bridge composed, conducted, and taught. His best-known pupil was Benjamin Britten, who was an 11-year-old prodigy when Bridge met him in 1924. Britten retained a great affection for his teacher, and paid tribute to him in the Variations on a Theme of Frank Bridge (1937).

**John Ireland was born near Manchester and exhibited musical talent from an early age. His parents' involvement in the literary world inspired many of Ireland's songs, set to poems by Thomas Hardy, A.E. Housman, John Masefield, Christina Rossetti, and others. He studied piano, organ, and composition at the Royal College of Music, most notably with Charles Villiers Stanford. After Ireland ended his studies with Stanford in 1901, he worked as an organist and choir director, serving in that capacity at St. Luke's Church in Chelsea from 1904 until 1926.

Ireland taught at the Royal College of Music from 1923 to 1939, where his students included Benjamin Britten. After retiring from academic life he moved to Rock Mill, Sussex, where he lived in a converted wind mill.
