July 24, 2016
Tenth Sunday after Pentecost
10:00 a.m. in the Holmes Chapel

Open Doors
Artist: Unknown

‘So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you.
For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds,
and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.’

-Luke 11:9-10

Welcome to this place of Christian worship.

Do not wait for someone else to begin worship. Pray silently for yourself, for those about you, for the poor and the oppressed, for those unable to be present, and for those who will shortly lead our common worship. Please silence all cell phones.

Childcare is available in the Westminster Early Childhood Programs building for children 5 years old and younger.

Welcome and Announcements

Mark Aquino

Order of Worship

Chiming of the Trinity

The sounding of the chimes, invoking Creator, Son, and Holy Spirit, is an invitation to prepare for worship through a time of silent reflection. Please be respectful of those who are praying.

Opening Voluntary

Trio Sonata III: Andante

J. S. Bach (1685-1750)

Call to Worship

The people stand and remain standing for the hymn that follows.

Hymn

O Praise the Gracious Power

MARION

The hymn can be found on page 9 of this bulletin.

Call to Confession

Cantor:

Be with us now, O Lord, qui - et us, cen-ter us, hear us.

Congregation:

O Lord, hear our prayer, O Lord, hear our prayer. When we call, an - swer us.

O Lord, hear our prayer, O Lord, hear our prayer. Come and lis-ten to us.

Prayer Of Confession

Holy One, although we come to church on Sundays, we too often live the rest of the week as though
you don't exist.
We act as though we created ourselves,
with no connection to you,
with no hope of transcendence.
Open us to your constant presence, Holy One.
Teach us to pray,
and restore our sight,
that we may commune with you each day
in the light of eternity. Amen.

Time for silent prayer.

Words of Assurance

Response to the Assurance

GLORIA PATRI

The people stand to sing.

Glo - ry be to the Fa-ther, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Ghost; As it was in the be - gin-ning, is now, and ev - er shall be, world with-out end. A - men, A - men.

Passing the Peace of Christ

The peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

Please turn to your neighbor and share the peace of Christ. It is appropriate to say, “The peace of Christ be with you,” and to respond, “And also with you.” The gesture is simple, but the meaning is profound. When we extend our hand to another, we identify with Jesus, who extended his life to the point of death to make peace with humanity (Col. 1:20-21).

What’s more, in the midst of divisions we symbolize our unity through handshakes and hugs (Eph. 2:14-21).

Likewise, when we regularly pass the peace we practice God’s call to make every effort to maintain the bond of peace (Eph. 4:3).

Prayer for Illumination

Scripture Lesson

Luke 11:1-13

¹He was praying in a certain place, and after he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, ‘Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples.’ ²He said to them, ‘When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come. ³Give us each day our daily bread. ⁴And forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone indebted to us. And do not bring us to the time of trial.’ ⁵And he said to them, ‘Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, “Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; ⁶for a friend of mine has arrived, and I have nothing to set before him.” ⁷And he answers from within, “Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything.” ⁸I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, at least because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs. ⁹‘So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. ¹⁰For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. ¹¹Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for a fish, will give a snake instead of a fish? ¹²Or if the child asks for an egg, will give a scorpion? ¹³If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!’

Voluntary

The Lord's Prayer

Albert Hay Malotte (1895-1964)*

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts,
As we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever.
Amen

The Rock That Is Higher Than I

Music: William. G. Fischer (1835-1912)

Lyrics: Erastus Johnson (1826-1909)

O, sometimes the shadows are deep, And rough seems the path to the goal,
And sorrows, sometimes how they sweep Like tempests down over the soul.

O, sometimes how long seems the day, And sometimes how weary my feet;
But toiling in life's dusty way, The Rock's blessed shadow, how sweet!

O, near to the Rock let me keep, If blessings or sorrows prevail;
Or climbing the mountain way steep, Or walking the shadowy vale.

O, then, to the Rock let me fly, to the Rock that is higher than I.

Presentation of the Gifts

OLD HUNDREDTH

The people stand as the Deacons come forward and remain standing for the Prayer of Dedication.

Praise God, from whom all bless-ings flow; praise God, all crea-tures here be-low;
praise God a-bove, ye heaven-ly host; Cre-a-tor, Son, and Ho-ly Ghost. A-men.

Prayer of Dedication

Holy One,
we give you thanks for your steadfast love and faithfulness.
Bless these offerings and transform them into gifts
of hospitality for those who need them most. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Concluding with the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil;
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

Notes on Today's Music

Albert Hay Malotte was born in Philadelphia and sang as a choir boy at Saint James Episcopal. He pursued private studies in composition and organ with Victor Herbert, W. S. Stansfield, and Georges Jacob. His career as an organist began in Chicago where he played for silent pictures and later concertized throughout the US and Europe. During World War II he held the rank of Captain in the Special Services for two years while he toured with the USO and entertained troops in New Guinea, Australia and Europe. Although widely known for his film scores (including uncredited music for animations from the Disney studios) he is best remembered for a setting of the Lord's Prayer.

*William G. Fischer showed musical ability at an early age, studying voice, organ, and piano at a German church in Baltimore from the age of eight. He became an experienced trainer and leader of large bodies of singers of all ages, and was much sought after to lead choirs and choruses in sacred music in Philadelphia. He also taught singing, piano and music theory. He was closely connected with Welsh music festivals, and directed the combined Welsh Societies at the bicentennial of the landing of William Penn. From 1858-1868, Fischer was Professor of Music at Girard College. Before leaving Girard College, he started in the piano business, where he built up one of the most prosperous piano houses in the country. He was partner with John E. Gould until Gould's death in 1875, at which point he took his oldest son, Charles, into partnership. He finally retired in 1898, and was succeeded by his son.

Erastus Johnson was the third of 13 children of Cyrus and Hepzibah Hunt Page Johnson. At age 17, he became a school teacher in Machias, Maine. At 26, he sailed on the Gold Hunter to join some of his brothers in the California Gold Rush; he remained in the San Francisco area for about eight years. Moving to Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, in 1860, he stayed there 24 years, working in the oil business. He then moved to Jackson, Maine; to Washington state; and lastly to Waltham, Massachusetts.
