The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying,

Many Will Come

Thomas Keesecker (b. 1958)

Cantor:

Be with us now, O Lord, qui-et us, cen-ter us, hear us.

Congregation:

O Lord, hear our prayer, O Lord, hear our prayer. When we call, an-swer us.

O Lord, hear our prayer, O Lord, hear our prayer. Come and lis-ten to us.

Prayer Of Confession

Merciful and gracious God,
we walk in a way that is not good.
We follow our own devices.
We ignore your image in ourselves
and in our neighbors.
Do not turn away from us,
O God, but hear our cry for blessing.
Lead us out of the tombs we inhabit.
Guide us into your light
so that we may walk in your way. Amen.

Time for silent prayer.

Words of Assurance

Response to the Assurance

GLORIA PATRI

The people stand to sing.

Passing the Peace of Christ

The peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

Please turn to your neighbor and share the peace of Christ. It is appropriate to say, "The peace of Christ be with you," and to respond, "And also with you." The gesture is simple, but the meaning is profound. When we extend our hand to another, we identify with Jesus, who extended his life to the point of death to make peace with humanity (Col. 1:20-21).

What's more, in the midst of divisions we symbolize our unity through handshakes and hugs (Eph. 2:14-21).

Likewise, when we regularly pass the peace we practice God's call to make every effort to maintain the bond of peace (Eph. 4:3).

Time With Children

At this time, children can meet with Miss Debbie and leave for Children's Church.

Prayer for Illumination

Scripture Lesson

Luke 8:26-39

²⁶Then they arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. ²⁷As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. ²⁸When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, ‘What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me’— ²⁹for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.) ³⁰Jesus then asked him, ‘What is your name?’ He said, ‘Legion’; for many demons had entered him. ³¹They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss. ³²Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. ³³Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned. ³⁴When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. ³⁵Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. ³⁶Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. ³⁷Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. ³⁸The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying, ³⁹‘Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you.’ So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

The Lord Is My Strength

Mark Patterson (b. 1969)

The Lord is my strength, he helps me walk upon the highest places.
The Lord is my strength, and I will rejoice in his name.
Though I look out and the trees are all bare,
Though I can see no fruit on the vines,
Even though the world is raging around me I will still rejoice. (Habakkuk 3:17-19)

Invitation to the Offering

Offertory

The Deacons receive the gifts, a portion of the blessings God has given us, which we return unto God. Worshippers are invited to sign the Friendship Pad located in the aisle seat of each pew and then please pass it to others in the pew.

Teach Me to Fly

Mark A. Miller (b. 1967)

Like a bird who has fallen, I rest in your hands, hoping and praying you will understand,
And fill in the pieces never fully there, healing my soul, Lord, with your love and care.

Can you make up the difference? Will you teach me to fly?
Can you lift me to freedom in the boundless sky? Can I dwell in you safely?
Will you fill my heart? Can you ready me for a brand new start?
Will you bless and forgive me? Can I be fully yours?
Will you wash me in mercy ‘til my spirit soars?

God, I wait here before you filled with fear and praise, searching for courage to accept your grace.

Oh, you can make up the difference! You will teach me to fly!
You can raise my spirit past the reasons why!
I can dwell in you safely, you will fill my heart.
Lord, please ready me for a brand new start.

Presentation of the Gifts

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Prayers of the People

Concluding with the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil;
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

NOTES ON TODAY'S MUSIC

Sir Edward Cuthbert Bairstow was an English organist and composer in the Anglican church music tradition. Born in Huddersfield in 1874, he studied organ with John Farmer at Balliol College, Oxford, and while articulated under Frederick Bridge of Westminster Abbey received tuition from Walter Alcock. He studied organ and theory at the University of Durham, receiving the Bachelor of Music in 1894, and the Doctor of Music in 1901. After holding posts in London, Wigan and Leeds, he served as organist of York Minster from 1913 to his death, when he was succeeded by his former pupil Francis Jackson. He was knighted in 1932.

Notorious for his terseness and bluntness, Bairstow did not always endear himself to others. Asked whether he would be willing to follow the example of his predecessor at York, Thomas Tertius Noble, and go to the United States (St. Thomas Church New York), he replied that he would "rather go to the devil". Comfortably ensconced in Yorkshire, where he was a close friend of the equally blunt Dr. Moody, Organist at Ripon Cathedral, he refused the offer to succeed Frederick Bridge at Westminster Abbey. He instead recommended his onetime pupil Ernest Bullock, who was duly appointed to the post.

*Théodore Dubois was a French organist and composer who won the Prix de Rome in 1861. In 1868, he became choirmaster at the Church of the Madeleine, and in 1871 took over from César Franck as choirmaster at the Basilica of Sainte-Clotilde. In 1877, Dubois returned to the Church of the Madeleine, succeeding Camille Saint-Saëns as organist there. From 1871 he taught at the Paris Conservatoire and in 1896, became its director. The music of Dubois also includes ballets, oratorios, and three symphonies. His best known work is the oratorio Les sept paroles du Christ ("The Seven Last Words of Christ" [1867]).

Join our Sunday morning Adult Bible class at 9:45AM in the Case Library from May 8th thro June 26th. We will study Jesus' Parables in light Amy-Jill Levine's book Short Stories by Jesus, The Enigmatic Parables of a Controversial Rabbi. We will look at the parables through the lens of Jesus' audience of 1st century people of Galilee and Judah. Levine's approach explores Jesus' parables, reveals hidden depths, exposes misinterpretation and mostly importantly shows how these stories can challenge and provoke us thousand years later.
