

WESTMINSTER PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Buffalo, New York

April 30, 2017
Third Sunday of Easter
10:30 a.m. in the Sanctuary

When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them.
Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him;
and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other,
'Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road,
while he was opening the scriptures to us?'

- Luke 24:30-32

Holy God, our companion on the way,
We yearn for your love and grace. We seek your wisdom and guidance.
We relish the joy which burns within our hearts when you are with us.
Yet, sometimes we would cling to you, hoard the blessings of relationship with you,
and not share your love with others. Forgive us.
Remind us that your love is to be carried throughout the world.
Press us to share the hope and joy of your love,
so that someone who hungers for spiritual food
may be filled by our witness to your grace.

Assurance of Pardon

The Risen Christ reaches out to us in unexpected ways.
May the Word of our still-speaking God continue to burn in our hearts.
In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven Thanks be to God!

Response

GLORIA PATRI

Passing the Peace of Christ

The peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

Please turn to your neighbor and share the peace of Christ. It is appropriate to say, "The peace of Christ be with you," and to respond, "And also with you." The gesture is simple, but the meaning is profound. When we extend our hand to another, we identify with Jesus, who extended his life to the point of death to make peace with humanity (Col. 1:20-21).

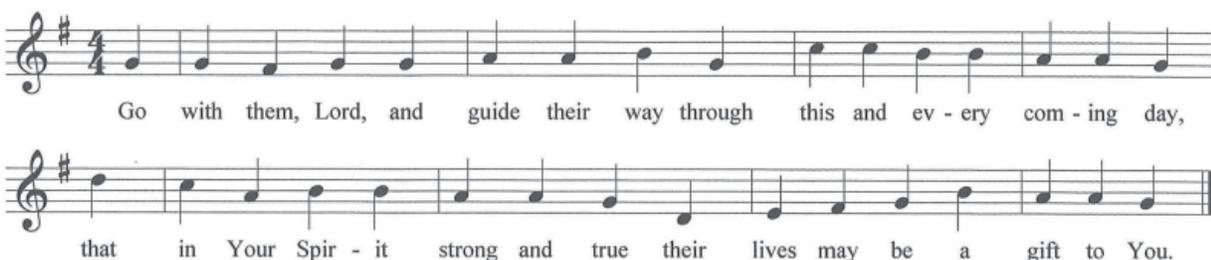

What's more, in the midst of divisions we symbolize our unity through handshakes and hugs (Eph. 2:14-21).

Likewise, when we regularly pass the peace we practice God's call to make every effort to maintain the bond of peace (Eph. 4:3).

Time with Children

TALLIS CANON

At this time, parents may decide to have their children 3 years and older leave with their teachers. When the children leave, please make sure they take their belongings with them.

Prayer for Illumination

Psalm Lesson

Psalm 116

Percy Buck (1871-1947)

¹I love the Lord, because he has heard the voice of my supplication, because he has inclined his ear to me whenever I called upon him. ²The cords of death entangled me; the grip of the grave took hold of me; I came to grief and sorrow. ³Then I called upon the Name of the Lord: "O Lord, I pray you, save my life." ⁴Gracious is the Lord and righteous; our God is full of compassion. ⁵The Lord watches over the innocent; I was brought very low, and he helped me. ⁶Turn again to your rest, O my soul, for the Lord has treated you well. ⁷For you have rescued my life from death, my eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling. ⁸I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living. ⁹I believed, even when I said, "I have been brought very low." In my distress I said, "No one can be trusted." ¹⁰How shall I repay the Lord for all the good things he has done for me? ¹¹I will lift up the cup of salvation and call upon the Name of the Lord. ¹²I will fulfill my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people. ¹³Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his servants. ¹⁴O Lord, I am your servant; I am your servant and the child of your handmaid; you have freed me from my bonds. ¹⁵I will offer you the sacrifice of thanksgiving and call upon the Name of the Lord. ¹⁶I will fulfill my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people. ¹⁷In the courts of the Lord's house, in the midst of you, O Jerusalem. Hallelujah!

Gospel Lesson

Luke 24:13-35

¹³Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, ¹⁴and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. ¹⁵While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, ¹⁶but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. ¹⁷And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?" They stood still, looking sad. ¹⁸Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?" ¹⁹He asked them, "What things?" They replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, ²⁰and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. ²¹But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. ²²Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, ²³and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. ²⁴Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him." ²⁵Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! ²⁶Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?" ²⁷Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures. ²⁸As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. ²⁹But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them. ³⁰When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. ³¹Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. ³²They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?" ³³That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. ³⁴They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!" ³⁵Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Notes on Today's Music

†Camille Saint-Saëns (1835-1921) was something of an anomaly among French composers of the nineteenth century in that he wrote in virtually all genres, including opera, symphonies, concertos, songs, sacred and secular choral music, solo piano, and chamber music. He was generally not a pioneer, though he did help to revive some earlier and largely forgotten dance forms, like the bourée and gavotte. He was a conservative who wrote many popular scores scattered throughout the various genres: his Piano Concerto No. 2, Symphony No. 3 ("Organ"), the symphonic poem "Danse macabre", the opera Samson et Dalila, and probably his most widely performed work, The Carnival of The Animals.

††Michael Ching (b. 1958) is an American composer, conductor, and arts administrator active in the field of opera. Ching's setting of "The Lord's Prayer" is taken from his 2015 opera Alice Ryley, commissioned and premiered by the Savannah Voice Festival (GA). Our soloist, Jessica Best, created the title role at those performances. Locally, Ching serves as the Music Director of Buffalo's Nickel City Opera.
